LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

THE MEMBERS TAKE A THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY.

A Delegation of Assemblymen Wait on the Minister of the Interior—The Liquor License Bill and Election Law in Committee—Dr. Brett and Vital Statistics.

THURSDAY, Nov. 18.

Mr. D. Mowat (South Regina) asked: Is the Government satisfied with the increase of subsidy granted to the North-West last session of the Dominion Parliament? Is it their intention to make another official excursion to Ottawa soon to press for such? It so would the Government at Regina be run by officials or members of the Government?

Premier Haultain says that to the first question he answers, No. In regard to question No. 2, it was not in a proper form to be answered. There has been no official excursions of the kind, and therefore there cannot be another such excursion; but if it be found necessary for such an excursion, to use the word in the question, one would be made. As to question No. 3, very much the same remarks applied. It was not a question that could be properly put. Beyond that, it was a question which insinuated that the Government might do that which it could not legally do, viz., delegate its functions to somebody else.

Dr. Brett moved that the order for the third reading of the Vital Statistics Bill be discharged and the Bill re-committed, as he wished to introduce an important amendment to the effect that the divisional registrar should keep a record as provided in the old ordinance, and should be furnished with books for that purpose.

Mr. Bannerman seconded the motion. Mr. J.H. Ross said that if the hon. member had been in his place during the past week or ten days he would not have found it necessary to ask that the Bill be re-committed. Dr. Brett had taken some interest in the Bill, and he did not take issue with him altogether in the course he had adopted; but the Bill had received its second reading and the question raised by the hon. member was thoroughly explained at that time.

Dr. Brett's motion was negatived, and the bill was read the third time and passed.

The House then went into committee on the Liquor License Bill.

Mr. D.H. McDonald (Fort Qu'Appelle) proposed that the hour for closing at night should be ten o'clock instead of half past eleven. He thought it would be a great improvement if all those licensed places were closed at ten o'clock instead of half past eleven, and so enable people to get home early at night. The said places had to close at seven o'clock Saturdays and he thought it would be well to still further limit the time during the week.

Premier Haultain could not see any reason for changing the hour. If there were abuses they would take place just as easy after ten as after eleven o'clock. Unless the House looked upon the motion as a block to the sale of liquor he could not see a reason for the motion and that was not the view he took of their license legislation. They charged these licensees pretty heavily for their licenses, and they ought to allow them to keep open such a time as enabled them to carry on their business.

Mr. Eakin (Saltcoats) objected to eleven o'clock. People went into the hotel bars at night and became noisy. It was disturbing the peace. He did not see why they should not be shut down.

Mr. J. Bannerman (East Calgary) said the hon. members argument did not go far enough. How about drinking in rooms? He had heard as much noise coming from rooms ss from bar rooms.

Mr. Agnew (Prince Albert) could not see the wisdom of closing at seven o'clock on Saturday night. It was the only night mechanics could get out for the evening. He thought they should keep open on Saturdays to nine o'clock and then perhaps they might close other nights at ten o'clock.

The committee then voted and the amendment was lost 9 to 12 and the section was agreed to.

Some other sections were also agreed to when progress was reported and The House adjourned.

FRIDAY, Nov. 19th.

Mr. Mowat gave notice for a Return showing the date of departure to and return from Ottawa on official business of members of the Executive in 1892 and 1896 inclusive, and the cost thereof.

Dr. Brett, having obtained leave to propose a motion without notice, moved that a delegation be appointed to wait upon the Minister of the Interior to urge upon him the resolution adopted by the House on the 11th inst. in favor of an all Canadian route to the Yukon from Edmonton. Mr. F. Time seconded the motion. The resolution was then agreed to and the following members were appointed the delegation: Messrs. Hautman, Ross, Clinkskill, McCauley, Neff, Agnew, Bannerman and the mover and seconder.

The Bill respecting the Public Service of the Territories was read a third time and passed.

The House then went into committee on the Bill to amend the law relating to Elections.

Mr. Clinkskill suggested that the swearing-in of an interpreter should occur once only during the day instead of in reference to each voter.

Premier Haultain said that would entail an alteration in the form of oath, and proposed that the section should stand over until he considered whether the suggestion could be acted upon.

Mr. Clinkskill further pointed out that it should be clearly stated whether the deputy returning officer was obliged to speak to the voter in English or not.

He had known a deputy returning officer show partiality by addressing a voter in a language other than English.

It was decided that the section stand over.

Section 48

Mr. Clinkskill suggested that the voter need not mark his ballot with an X but that any mark whatever would be sufficient.

Mr. Hilliard Mitchell was afraid that the course proposed would lead to irregularities. The X was a simple mark which even an illiterate voter could make.

Mr. Haultain also pointed out that even if an X was not distinctly made the present law would allow the vote, provided the mark was not obviously intended to defeat the secrecy of the ballot.

The section was agreed to.

Mr. Clinkskill asked what was the definition of "time" in the Bill as regarded the opening and closing of the pool.

Mr. Haultain replied that a section would be introduced later on stating that "time" in the Ordinance meant "Standard time."

Mr. Clinkskill asked if a man mark his ballot on the outside of the paper ought the deputy returning officer draw his attention thereto and supply him with another ballot to vote again.

Mr. Haultain suggested that to avoid the difficulty a sub-section could be added to the effect that the deputy returning officer should not receive a ballot paper marked in the way described but give the voter another ballot paper.

The section was held over to await such amendment.

Mr. D. Mowat proposed a section to the effect that no candidate or any person in his behalf shall either solicit or canvass either orally or by written or printed document any voter or voters to vote for him under penalty of voiding the election, the section not to apply to public meetings regularly called and at which not less than ten persons are present. The hon. member said he introduced the question to ascertain the feeling of the House. He need not point out the humiliating position a candidate was in, begging and praying persons to vote for him. Nearly everyone in the House was familiar with that process, and it was one all candidates would like to be rid of. If the section became law it would do away with a great deal of feeling and undue influence. The effect the Government in power would have against a candidate who was opposing them would be done away with.

In connection with the proposal he would say that it almost included compulsory voting, but he did not think it called for it, and therefore he had not included compulsory voting in his proposal, but if necessary of course that could be done. He was not aware if any other country had such a law, but that did not matter, the North West would have a crowning climax by passing such a law.

Mr. Eakin (Saltcoats) said a difficulty ahead at the very outset was to prevent an opponent canvassing for a candidate so as to void the election.

There was much in the proposal he liked, however, and he suggested the matter be held over for consideration.

Mr. Jas. Clinkskill said a difficulty ahead at the very outset was to prevent an opponent canvassing for a candidate so as to void the election.

There was much in the proposal he liked, however, and he suggested the matter be held over for consideration.

Mr. Agnew (Prince Albert) said it would certainly be an advantage to be elected while sitting at home, without going out. They might put the candidates in a pen and keep them there on exhibition. (Laughter.)

It was decided to hold over the section. Some other sections were agreed to, when progress was reported.

The House adjourned.

MONDAY, Nov. 22.

Mr. Eakin presented report of the special committee appointed to consider a manner of dealing with the question of securing extensions of the Manitoba and North-Western and North-West Central railways. The report was taken as read and ordered to be committed to committee of the whole on Wednesday.

Dr. Brett presented report from the committee appointed to confer with Hon. Mr. Sifton on the question of an all Canadian route to Yukon via Edmonton. The report stated that:—"An interview was held and the matter pressed by different members of the Committee." Mr. Sifton replied that he recognized the importance of such a route and would instruct Mr. J.M. Arthur, one of their best surveyors, to investigate as soon as possible the feasibility of the route and report to him; and if the report be favorable, would do his best to have the route opened up."

Mr. Mowat, seconded by Mr. Maloney, moved that an order of the House do issue for a Return showing the names of all Members of the Executive Committee left Regina for Ottawa on official business and date of return during the years 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896; also showing the expenses incurred each year.

Mr. Ross placed on the Table a Return respecting the two well borers charged to the district of Prince Albert West, one of which had been missing. Mr. Ross said it was his pleasure to announce that the lost borer had been found. The hon. Member for Wolseley had given the information that there was in his district a borer with which the district had never been charged. The hon. Minister stated that this borer had been purchased in 1894/95, before he had been in office, and he had been obliged to depend on fables and documents for information in regard to it.

In committee on the Liquor License Bill:

Mr. Clinkskill suggested that forfeited liquor, instead of being destroyed as provided, might be sold and the proceeds given to hospitals. He promised to draft an amendment in this line.

Mr. Haultain suggested a better definition of the druggists' exceptions. At present druggists may sell up to six ounces strictly for medicinal purposes without medical certificate. He thought they should enforce the medical certificate in all cases.

Dr. Patrick said they might and should make certain exceptions in regard to certain kinds of alcohol and spirits which were used for mechanical purposes, and for which a man would not care to be obliged to get a certificate from his doctor.

Mr. Haultain said the medical men of the Assembly might prepare a provisional covering these necessary exceptions.

On the Interdiction clauses. Messrs. Eakin and Dill objected to the change making the interdiction of any person a public trial before a justice, before whom the party could make defence. They contended that such change would make the interdiction clause inoperative.

Mr. Haultain pointed out that there was a second provision whereby near relatives could procure interdiction through the inspector without formal proceeding. He said there was doubt whether the old provision of private procedure by the justice would stand the test of law.

Mr. Dill then pointed out that the provision for near relatives referred only to minors. He proposed an amendment to cover all drunkards whether minors or adults. Dr. Brett supported. The amendment was adopted without division.

Dr. Patrick moved to empower inspectors to interdict on their own initiative.

Mr. Clinkskill pointed out that inspectors had power to go before a justice and procure interdiction.

Mr. Haultain said the inspectors were paid officials and should have no delicacy about taking public action.

It was agreed to have an amendment prepared to provide penalty for an interdicted person who procures liquor from the outside.

Brett wanted the interdicted person who brought to book for getting liquor, to be obliged to give evidence and tell from whom and where he got his liquor.

Mr. Haultain said he agreed with the idea, but when such persons give such evidence he necessarily freed himself from penalty, because they could compel no person to give evidence which would incriminate himself.

Dr. Patrick (Yorkton) said it would

THE FIRE BY-LAW

Not Being Duly Observed the Town Council Take Steps to Enforce It.

The regular weekly meeting of the Town Council was held in the Council chamber on Monday evening last. Mayor Bogue presided and there were present Councillors Herrler, Emerson, Hannah and Grayson.

According to instructions received at the last regular meeting of the Council the Fire, Water and Light Committee reported that they had examined the chimneys in the fire limits and found that the chimneys of a building on Main street belonging to Octavius Field and occupied by Mrs. Wallace, were contrary to by-law, and also the chimney on the building owned by M. MacLeod and occupied by H. W. Carter. The committee also reported that the buildings in Block 124, belonging to Mrs. McCaskill and J. H. Kern, were moved there since the passing of the fire limit by law. The building erected by Mr. McBride, was contrary to by law and as far as the committee could ascertain, permission was only given to Mr. McBride to erect the building as a temporary shelter until he built his solid brick block. A stable belonging to I. M. Chalmers in rear of store was also built contrary to fire limit by law. The Committee also reported that Mr. A. Gass was erecting a building on Main street without submitting a plan to the Council. The report went on to say: "As the time is past for building operations and this Council is tending to remedy the neglects of former Councils, steps should have been taken at the proper time. We therefore recommend that the Inspector stop all further improvements on said buildings, and that the Clerk draw a memorandum in accordance with this report and hand the same to the Council of 1898."

Councillors Herrler and Emerson moved that the report be received and adopted. Councillors Hannah and Grayson moved in amendment that the report be received.

On the amendment being put to the Council it was declared carried and the original motion was therefore lost.

On motion by Councillors Hannah and Grayson the report was amended as follows:

That the town inspector notify O. Field to build or erect chimneys conforming to the fire limit by law; M. J. MacLeod to remove out of the fire limits the provisional building erected by M. McBride; and also I. M. Chalmers that the stable in rear of store is contrary to fire by law and must be made to conform thereto; said improvements to be made before May 15, 1898. And further request Minnie Kern to furnish the B. of W. with a plan of the building now being erected by him before proceeding any further with the work.

Mrs. Forget, president of the Canadian Council of Women, Regis, wrote regarding female idiots or semi-senile.

A communication was received from the Treasurer in regard to the complaint of Mr. O. B. Fysh re the town hall. On motion by Coun. Grayson, seconded by Coun. Herrler, the Clerk was instructed to forward the communication to Mr. Fysh for his perusal. It would appear that the hall had not been properly hired by Mr. Fysh in sufficient time to have hall properly heated, but every effort was made to have it comfortable as soon as a proper order was given to the Inspector to open and heat the same.

On motion by Councillors Hannah and Grayson the Clerk was instructed to write the Deputy Minister of Indian Revenue giving him details of correspondence to the Ast. Inspector of Weights and Measures requesting him to inspect the municipal scales which were erected over a year ago, and in forming him that, if inspection of scales is made annually, this scale has been in use over a year without being inspected, and that it would appear from a letter received from the Assistant Inspector that no inspection would be made until March next, and that the Council is desirous of having the scales inspected within a short time.

PRACTICAL FARMING.

CAUSES OF POOR CROPS.

It is to say the least, a remarkable coincidence that no sooner does President Faure return from St. Petersburgh than we hear that a movement is on foot for such a revision of the constitution of the French Republic as will permit the election of the Chief magistrate by the people. It is worth while to consider just what such a move would mean. At present, under the constitution framed in 1875, the election of the French Republic is left to the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, convoked in joint session at Paris. He is chosen for seven years and is responsible. He is not responsible in official conduct, except in case of treason and all his official acts must be signed by one of the Ministers who on their part are equally responsible to the "Chambre populaire." The popular number is used in the election, but the Chamber of Deputies, the popular branch of the Parliament, has long contended that a man accountable to himself alone, as this claim was contested successfully in the Senate, and the overthrown Bourgeois Cabinet was dismissed, although it possessed a majority in the popular Chamber.

MUNICIPAL.

It has been said that in times of prosperity the public in general do not seem to be particularly interested in politics and without the spur of an election contest, or of any all absorbing question under discussion, most of the electors seem disposed to let things slide. If this is true in regard to politics, it also holds good in regard to municipal matters, and if we were to apply this rule and measure our prosperity by the interest usually taken in the annual election for Mayor and Council, our advancement must indeed be great.

It has been the custom for a number of years past to leave the choosing of candidates for municipal honors to nomination day, and usually there is great difficulty experienced in securing a sufficient number to fill the Council before the close of nominations. On one occasion after the new Council had been declared elected by acclamation and had taken their seats for the first time, it was found that one of the number could not subscribe to the oath of office, owing to his not having the necessary property qualifications, and the town was therefore put to the expense of a new election.

The municipal nominations take place on the first Monday in December, and it is about time some consideration was given to the selection of those who will conduct the affairs of the town and guide the municipal ship through the coming year. Matters of such importance should not be left over until the last minute. Due preparation should be made.

Mayor Bogue has informed us that he wishes to retire at the end of this year. Who is going to be his successor? The citizens of Moose Jaw should consider the question and lose no time in bringing forward the best candidates available for the Council of 1898. Let those who are largely interested in the welfare of the town come forward and share in the responsibility.

VICTORIAN NURSES.

The movement for the establishment of the Victorian Order of Nurses has received material strength from the address of Dr. Worcester at a meeting of the Women's Council at Ottawa. The speaker is principal of the training school for district nurses at Walham, Mass., and is fully alive to the value of the aid modern nursing has rendered the medical profession.

The brief historical retrospect of the development of modern nursing was extremely interesting. Like many lines of modern advancement, we owe it to the Germans, who started a training school in an obscure village in 1832. The first English trained nurse was Florence Nightingale, whose services during the Crimean war was the beginning of a revolution in modern hospitals. It led to the establishment of a Nightingale school for nurses after the close of the war, and the remarkable development in the care of the sick and injured which has followed.

Dr. Worcester took special pains to show the difference between district and hospital nurses, the former being specially trained for usefulness in the home, and the latter for service in the hospital. Speaking from twelve years' personal experience, he felt certain that the district nurse who could visit the patients of the doctor in their homes, see that his instructions were followed, that medicines were regularly given, food properly prepared and served, ventilation and all needs of the sick room attended to, was an inestimable blessing to both doctor and patients.

The services of such nurses were especially valuable to a physician with large practice among people unable to pay for the continuous attendance of a trained nurse and unwilling to be removed to hospitals. Dr. Worcester narrated his own experiences, having several district nurses each visiting a number of houses every day among his patients. They charged a fee of 25 cents, and their daily reports to him as well as their services in the sick rooms were of great service both to himself and to his patients. His experience went to show that there was no danger of such nurses trying to take the place of physicians. The more the nurses knew the less likelihood there was of her venturing to assume the function of a qualified practitioner. It is an order of district nurses that Lady Aberdeen is seeking to establish, and Dr. Worcester is hopeful of the early successful issue of the project. He is confident that all difficulties in the way of harmonious work under the auspices of the medical profession will soon be removed, and that the Victorian Order of Nurses will fittingly commemorate the Jubilee year. —Globe.

CRIMINAL STATISTICS.

The Canadian criminal statistics for the year ending 30th September, 1896, have been published and contain some interesting facts regarding the criminal population of the country. During that year there were 7,395 charges for indictable offences, in Canada, a decrease of 335 as compared with the year previous; out of which number 2,065 were acquitted, 13 detained for lunacy and 113 received no sentence for several causes, such as "Nolle prosequi," "jury disagreed," "bail forfeited," &c. In 1895, out of 7,730 charges, 2,154 were acquitted, 20 detained for lunacy and 82 received no sentence.

The number of convictions for indictable offences has increased during the year in Manitoba and Nova Scotia, while it has decreased in all the other provinces. Of the total number of convictions, 349 belong to the female sex in 1896, against 400 in 1895. There were 660 young offenders under 16 years in 1896, and 790 in 1895.

The use of liquor for 1896 stands as follows:—Moderate, 53.5, and immoderate, 35.5; against 53.4 and 33.2 respectively for 1895.

Out of the total convictions in 1896, 4,192 were convicted for the first time, 537 for the second time, and 475 were convicted for the third time or over; against 4,412, 615 and 447 respectively for 1895.

The number of offences against the "Liquor License Acts" shows an increase of 187 during the year, and the cases for drunkenness have also increased by 263.

The number of fines in 1896 was 27,598, against 27,989 in 1895; and the total amount of fines was $212,395 in 1896, against $221,001 in 1895.

The number of convictions has increased in Nova Scotia, Ontario, the Territories, New Brunswick and Manitoba, while it has decreased in Quebec, Prince Edward Island and British Columbia.

The number of cases tried by a jury during the year 1896 was 898, of which 479 males and 17 females were convicted, against 981 cases in 1895, of which 505 males and 19 females were convicted.

The number of cases in which the prerogative of mercy has been exercised during the year 1896 is 145, including two death sentences commuted, against 194 in 1895, including one death sentence commuted.

The Presbyterian Synod at Winnipeg last week passed a resolution "strongly disapproving of the great amount of unnecessary work which is being done by the railways in Manitoba and the Territories, especially at divisional points, on the Lord's Day, and that a committee be appointed to interview the railway authorities to see whether this cannot be abated." In the very early days it used to be a saying in the Territories that there was no Sunday west of Brandon. The remark does not apply at this present, but there is enough unnecessary Sunday work being done to give point to the resolution above quoted. Apart from the religious aspect of the question, railroad men require a stated day of rest as much as other citizens and as far as possible they should get it. —Whitewood Herald.

A bulletin dealing with the dressing, packing and shipping of poultry for the British markets has been issued by the direction of Hon. Sytney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, and contains a large amount of information for farmers and those who sell or export poultry. The information has been gleaned from various sources, chiefly from reports received from the office of the High Commissioner in London and from interviews with importers of poultry whom Professor Robertson met when in Great Britain this year.

The Queen Behind the Finger.

Miss Lilian Bell, who is narrating her impressions of the Old World and its people for the Ladies' Home Journal, writes from London in the November issue of that magazine: "I have seen the Houses of Parliament and the Tower of Westminster Abbey, and the World's Fair, but the most impressive sight I ever beheld is the upraised hand of a London policeman. I never heard one of them speak except when spoken to. But let one little blue-coated man raise his forefinger and every vehicle on wheel stops, and stops instantly; stops in obedience to law and order; stops without swearing or gesticulating or abuse; stops with no underhand trying to drive out of line and get by on the other side; just stops and that is the end of it. And why? Because the Queen of England is behind that raised finger. Why, a London policeman has more power than our President! Even the Queen's coachmen obey that forefinger. Understanding how to obey, that is what makes liberty."

I am the most flamboyant of Americans, the most hopelessly addicted to my own country, but I must admit that I had my first real taste of liberty in England. I will tell you why. In America nobody obeys anybody. We make our laws, and then most indifferently set about studying out a plan by which we may evade them. America is suffering, as all republics must of necessity suffer, from liberty in the hands of the multitude. The multitude are ignorant, and liberty in the hands of the ignorant is always license."

Cured Nervous Twitching and Sleeplessness.

Geo. Webster, of Forest, writes: "For a number of years I suffered greatly from nervousness, twitching the limbs and sleeplessness. I tried almost every known remedy without relief. I was induced as a last resort to try South American Nervine. The first bottle benefited me, and five bottles cured me. It is a grand medicine and I owe my life to it." Sold by W. W. Cole.

Years of Suffering From Rheumatism Relieved by One Dose of Medicine.

"For many years," writes Mrs. N. Ferris, wife of the well-known birch manufacturer, of Highgate, Ont., "I was sorely afflicted with rheumatic pains in my ankles, and at times was unable to walk. I tried everything, I thought, and doctored for years, with much benefit. Though I had lost confidence in medicines, I was induced to try South American Rheumatic Cure. To my delight the first dose gave me more relief than I have had in years, and two bottles had completely cured me. You can publish this letter." Sold by W. W. Cole.

Christmas With an Emperor.

The Christmas Ladies' Home Journal tells how the German Emperor, with the Empress and the Royal family, spend Christmas Day with their children. The article is written by Mr. Nagel von Brawe, an attaché of the Court, who was permitted to be present at the celebration last Christmas in order to write this article. The pictures were made "on the spot," and approved by the Emperor.

A Splendid Premium.

That admirable family and general newspaper and farmers' friend, the Winnipeg Weekly Tribune, is presenting its subscribers for the coming year with a beautiful jubilee souvenir in the shape of a magnificent group picture entitled "Queen Victoria and Her Premiers." This great picture embraces true-to-life photos of Her Majesty the Queen; Lord Salisbury, Premier of Great Britain; Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada; together with pictures of the Premiers of every colony in the British empire. The collection is tastefully grouped, making a large handsome picture in several colors, convenient for framing. It will be prized not only as a splendid work of art, but will be worthy of transmission from generation to generation as a beautiful souvenir of the Jubilee year. This Jubilee picture will be entirely unlike anything heretofore produced, being prepared especially for The Weekly Tribune, and can only be obtained by subscribers to that paper.

A copy of this fine premium and The Weekly Tribune to Jan 1, 1899, is sent to any address for $1. The Weekly Tribune already the largest paper published in Canada west of Lake Superior, and always in the van of progress will undergo several important improvements during the coming year. Address all orders to The Tribune Publishing Co., Winnipeg.

It is a painful sight to see an otherwise robust man limping along on a crutch or cane, a sufferer from rheumatism. Rheumatism is a disease that will never attack a man who keeps his blood pure and rich. There is just one way to do this. That is, to keep the digestion and assimilation perfect and the liver and bowels active.

All cases of rheumatism are promptly cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It creates a keen, hearty appetite, controls the nerves, and all weakness of the stomach. It makes the assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and rich with the life-giving elements of the food, the nerves strong and steady, and it drives all impurities and abnormal acids from the blood. It removes all stiffness and dead tissues pain. It is the great blood-maker. It does not build fleshy flesh, but tears down the unhealthy, half-dead tissues that constitute corpulence, carries them away and excretes them, replacing them with tissues of health. Thousands have testified to its merits. Sold at all medicine stores.

"I have been afflicted with rheumatism and kidney trouble," writes Mr. C. R. White, of Grove, Geauga Co., Ohio. "I suffered untold pain and was afraid I would lose my life. At times we almost lost hope. This cure has not been a night for three years that I could rest in any position. I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I used three bottles of it and am well of both diseases."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasure Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them and there's nothing else "just as good."

Return of Asst.-Commissioner McIlree.

As intimated in our local column last week, Asst. Commissioner McIlree has returned from Skagway. It will be remembered that Mr. Ilree left several months ago with a detachment of the N. W. M. P. for the Klondyke and for some time past has been superintending the commissariat. He reports that two mails have left the International post at Dyea and have gone over the mountains. Where they are now they are impossible to say. They started at the very worst time of the year. Crowds of persons are waiting at Skagway to go on as soon as they can, and many others have gone east having cached their belongings to return in the spring. There are between one and two thousand persons in Skagway but all of them are going to the gold fields, as several have started stores at the place and intend settling there. Quite a lot of the people are in tents awaiting the time to move to the Yukon. Most of this community are Americans of many nationalities, a good many being Swedes. Some are Canadians who have crossed the line but have never taken out their final naturalization papers. The majority of pure Canadians on their way to the Yukon is very small, only about three or four per cent.

Mr. Ilree reports all the N. W. M. P. as well. They are building quarters at Lake Tagish, and there is a detachment at White Horse Rapids, fifty miles below the lake. There is no lack of provisions at Skagway or Lake Tagish. Beef is killed every day and it has been as low as ten cents a lb. in quantity. There was no difficulty in driving cattle over the pass to Bennett.

The reports from Dawson City are conflicting, but there are no grounds to fear a famine, though there may be somewhat of a scarcity; but the people will get through the winter all right. The story that people arriving there have their food taken from them which is then divided among the people, Mr. McIlree describes as a pure yarn. Inspector Harper with twenty of the N. W. M. P. and ten civilians had arrived all safe at Five Fingers. This news was brought by persons from Dawson City early in October, and they believed the party would get to Dawson City in good time. They had with them the prisoner charged with the murder of Peterson and he would be tried at Dawson City.

Judge Maguire's party and Inspector Walsh's party are believed to be all right, as each party took a dog train with them so as to be able to communicate in case of emergency, and nothing has been heard of or from them. Assistant Commissioner McIlree looks well though he has lost weight, for which the accident to his foot is responsible and from which he has now recovered.

Come Apart and Rest a While.

From the hot street's surging tide
Rest is but one step aside.

BITTER TASTE.

It Aids in the Detection of Unwholesome Food.

Daniel Webster in the famous White trial in Salem, Mass., years ago declared that "murder will out." This maxim has been found applicable to many other things besides murder. Housewives know it to be true when there is alum in baking powder. A bitterness in the bread at once betrays the alum's presence. It can't conceal its true nature. The alum bitterness "will out," and because it will, physicians, who understand the harmful effect of alum on the system, are at a loss to know why people continue to buy baking powders containing it. All baking powders sold for twenty-five cents a pound and less contain alum. There is surely no economy in using these cheap powders. For a pure cream of tartar powder, as Dr. Price's was shown to be at the World's Fair, goes so much farther and gives so much better results, there is no doubt of its being more economical in the long run.

Neal Dow.

This great and successful advocate of prohibition has died at the great age of 93, in the city of Portland, Maine, where he was born in 1804. His parents were of Quaker persuasion, and he joined in early manhood the temperance army, of which he became perhaps the most conspicuous leader. As far back as 1839 he became an advocate of prohibition, and got a vote taken on it in Portland, but was defeated. He tried again in 1844 with partial success a prohibition law for the whole state, and in 1846 his measure was carried triumphantly in both legislature and senate, but the penalties were found too small, and the bill as amended to meet this defect, was vetoed by the governor. At last he carried his point and as Mayor of Portland enforced the law, which was repealed in 1856 but re-enacted next year with more severe penalties than ever. In 1861 he raised a regiment for service in the civil war, but was wounded and taken prisoner in the south, where he spent some months in the famous Libby prison. He has been known all over the world as a consistent, able and eloquent advocate of his principles, and had in him the stuff of which all true crusaders are made. Believing himself right, he did what he thought was his duty, regardless of the consequences. He was buried with the highest honors his native city could bestow.

The Chicago Inter-Oceans says: "Judged by what he was able to accomplish, his life was a grand success. It is doubtless true that all his hopes and aspirations were not realized, but, had he been content to do, he might have rested and found satisfaction in the knowledge that he had planted the standard of a great moral reform far in advance of the outposts of the nations that are looking toward the light."

The Poet.

Down in a green and rugged valley
A youth would dwell;
A youth who moped and thought of Sally,
And of the village belles.

As author, too, he thought he'd shine,
So he commenced a novel;
But if the yarn like his rhyme,
He'll have to learn to shovel.

One night he dreamed of a fortune to come

And thought it must be true;

Then he struck work and lived at home,

Thought of a coat—and looked blue.

Now this fortune was a long time coming,

But never a tap did he,

Savvy write lines on young boys grinning;

He no better work could see.

Perhaps some day the mistake he may find;

There's better work, until it comes,

Than wastes his time on useless rhyme

And books that will have no run.

The Town of Nogood.

My friend, have you heard of the town of Nogood?

On the banks of the River Slow,
Where blooms the Waitaibie flower fair,
Where the Sometime-other scents the air,
And the soft Gocasay grow?

It lies in the valley of Whattheuse,
In the province of Letterslide;
That tiredfeeling is native there,
It's the home of the reckless Idon'tcare, Where the Giveitups slide.

It stands at the bottom of Leyzhill,
And is easy to reach I declare;
You've only to fold up your hands and glide
Down the slope of the Kewkwill's toboggan slide
To be quickly landed there.

The town is as old as the human race,
And it grows with the flight of years.

It is wrapped in the fog of illers' dreams,

Its streets are paved with discarded schemes

And sprinkled with useless tears.

The town of Nogood is all hedged about
By the mountains of Dispise;

No sentinel stands on the gloomy walls,

No trumpet to battle and triumph calls,

For cowards alone are there.

My friend from the dead-alive town of Nogood

If you would keep far away,

Just follow your duty through good and ill,

Take this for your motto, "I can, I will,"

And live up to it each day.

The Maple.

(The Canadian National Tree.)

O maple, tall and slender,
Filled with the sun's rich wine,
Whether on open hillside,
Or on the forest line.

You bring with your glad splendour

The June-World's cup divine.

With warm light overflowing,
Strong and stately tree,
You spread your bounteous branches
To all glad airs that be.

O tree of all trees growing

The dearest one to me.

All through the golden summer
Your leafy tents you spread;

When out by field and highway
The moon lies parceled and red;

And out in the fields the cattle
Doez by the brooks dried bed.

When late in ripe September
Earth's fruits are gathered in,

And wealth of glowing plenty

O'erflows each brimming bin,

You with your flaming splendours

The autumn's triumph win.

And when in bleak October

The frosty nuts do rain,

And earth, more grave and sober,

Hath wrapt her pall again;

Through your great boughs the storm-wind

Goes roaring like the main.

O tree of mine own country,

I love your stately green;

Old memories of my childhood

Blow your warm leaves between,

And past your leafy radiance

Haunts each familiar scene.

Like you upon your hillside,

Filled with earth's golden glow,

Strong, towering proud to heaven

When happy June winds blow,

O tree, may my young country

In days to come outgrow.

Like you amid the forest,

May she mid nations dweller,

A Titan proud and mighty,

Filled with earth's gladdest dower,

While neath her wide-swinging branches

A people's hopes embower.

DEADLY KIDNEY DISEASE.

The Only Way to Avoid The Great Destroyer.

Once clear to the individual that kidney disease is a result of uric acid and oxalate of lime, which have their place in the human system, hardening and forming into stone-like substance, and the folly of treating such a disease with any medicine other than a liquid and one that will dissolve these solids, there will be little trifling with pills, powders and remedies of this character, which can not possibly effect a permanent cure. The success of South American Kidney Cure is due to the fact that as a liquid it immediately reaches the diseased part, and dissolves these alkalies and hard substances. It never fails. Sold by W. W. LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Dr. Patrick was not enamoured of the provision for punishment of intemperate persons who obtained liquor. They were victims of their appetites and the license system. When they were intemperate, it was evident they had lost their self-control in the presence of liquor. They should punish the person providing the liquor, but intemperate persons were subject enough to punishment by their habits.

Mr. Haultain said that some persons who were intemperate were by no means lacking in self-control. One such had told him personally that he cared nothing for their motives to the dealers not to give him liquor and he could get all the liquor he wanted in spite of them. It was for such men as this that the penalty was provided.

At 5:30 the committee rose and reported progress.

On motion by Mr. Haultain the House adjourned until Monday next, to allow the Members to spend Thanksgiving at home. Mr. Haultain said that they would not sit on Thursday, as there would only be one day (Friday) left by such adjournment. He believed the adjournment would actually expedite the work of the session. With the House in session daily the Government really found difficulty in getting the necessary time to give to the preparation of legislation.

The robbery of $600 from Messrs. McNeice & Burrows' safe seems a mysterious affair. Two persons were arrested but there was no evidence against them and they were discharged. There is a growing opinion that there has been no robbery at all, but that the matter is simply a mistake in keeping that will shortly be discovered.

Commissioner Robertson has received a report of the work of cheese factories in Prince Edward Island during this year. The total output exceeds in value $300,000. There are now thirty-two factories in successful operation in the summer, and nineteen creameries in the winter, as a result of Government assistance for a few years.

Two railway camps engaged in the construction of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway had a thrilling experience last Monday near Lethbridge. The recent cold spell caused the formation of ice on portions of the Belly river and effected a sudden rise of water. Thirty men narrowly escaped with their lives. The rise was so rapid that two men were imprisoned in a tent for two hours. By climbing the tent pole, tearing a hole in the canvas, and wading through 100 yards of ice cold water they were saved from certain death. Several men were badly frost-bitten, the foreman, Sam Hooton, so severely that he was removed to the hospital.

New Time Card.

The new C.P.R. time card went into effect on Sunday last, and the train service is now as follows:

No. 1 (from the east) arrives at 9:55, and departs at 10:15.

No. 2 (from the west) arrives at 16:15, and departs at 16:30.

No. 108 (from the south) arrives at 9:30, and departs at 16:45.

The changes will effect a great improvement in the management of the service at this point and will save the passengers and others much inconvenience as there will not be so much switching to do and the transferring will be much easier. It will be well to remember that in the evening No. 2 leaves before the "Soo" instead of the "Soo" leaving first as formerly.

Missions to the Indians in Assiniboina.

Next Sunday is the day appointed by the Synod of the Diocese of Qu'Appelle for the annual collections for the missions to the Indians in this territory of Assiniboina. Bishop Burn just before his death said "I wished that the parishes and people took deeper interest in the work. We all allow, at least in theory, the claims of missions to the heathen, the fulfillment of a direct command of our God and Master, and here we have these in our very midst. More than half of the Indians in this Diocese were still, he believed, absolute heathens. Many have never had the gospel preached to them. Surely what ever may be the claim of the heathen world on us, this claim is paramount. Here we have the spiritual Lazarus laid at our very door. It is we who have come to make our homes where once they lived alone, and only in many places to degrade a naturally noble race. And yet men point to the Indian, the Indian round town. They say they have 'no use' for the Indian; that there is no hope for the regeneration of the race. We can leave these men to excuse the indifference which such crude judgment display. We await the judgment of God—the God of the red man as of the white, and in view of it we owe the Indian race a reparation; a reparation that can be paid only in ministry to their needs, in the charity that relieves their wants and heals their diseases, and more than all gives to them the light of the knowledge and love of God, of the comfort of his grace in this life and brighter hopes of a life to come."

There are Anglican church missions at Fort Pelly, Day Stars Mission, Gordon Reserve and Fishing and Nut Lakes, all in Assiniboina.

THE UNION BANK

Has Decided to Establish a Branch in Moose Jaw.

The Union Bank of Canada has decided to establish a branch at Moose Jaw. Mr. E. E. Webb, General Manager, and Mr. Sharples, Director, were in town on Tuesday, and leased from Mr. C. A. Gass, for a term of five years, the new building which he commenced last summer, but which is not yet completed. Mr. Gass will now put in a vault and have the building completed this fall if possible. The Union Bank has branches established in the principal cities of Ontario, Quebec and Manitoba, and in the Territories at Lethbridge, Macleod and Moose Jaw.

Banking institutions in general are inclined to always look before they leap. That the directors of a chartered bank have decided to establish a branch in Moose Jaw is good cause for congratulation, as it is another proof of the progress of the town and district, and will greatly enhance our commercial status. The Moose Jaw district is bound to prosper, and the directors of the Union Bank think so; otherwise they would not establish a branch in our midst.
